This matter has been listed for directions.

It was a common prayer made by the Learned counsel appearing for the parties that the Learned Expert Members who had visited the site earlier, would also visit the site in monsoon season so as to assess the complete and comprehensive situation with regard to wet land and likely damage to the water body. The Learned Expert Members who had earlier visited the site shall revisit the site by the next week and after due notice to the Learned Counsel appearing for the parties in this case.
