Date and Remarks	Orders of the Tribunal
Items No. 6 December 20, 2013	We have heard Learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant. This Miscellaneous Application has been filed to take action against the various State Pollution Control Boards numbering 8 and the 16 units carrying on coal tar manufacturing, for not obeying or implementing the orders of this Tribunal dated 04.08.2013, 1.11.2013 and 21.11.2013. The learned Counsel would submit that the order copies passed by this Tribunal have been sent to the concerned Pollution Control Boards as well as the concerned project proponents in various states and another reminder has been sent to Pollution Control Boards of the concerned states. However, admittedly there is no acknowledgment which has been filed before this Tribunal to show that the project proponents and the Pollution Control Boards have, in fact, received the said notice. The Learned Counsel appearing for the applicant would fairly submit that in such circumstances the concerned Pollution

Boards as well as the project proponents may be impleaded as parties in the M.P. He has also filed the list of various State Pollution Control Boards and 16 units along with their address. It shall form a part of the records.

Accordingly, we implead all the 8 State Pollution Control Boards as well as the coal tar 16 manufacturing units as respondents in this Miscellaneous Application.

The Registry to issue notice to all the impleaded parties by dasti as well as Registered post/acknowledgment due within two days. Notice returnable on 10th January, 2014. In continuation of the earlier orders we reiterate that the concerned Pollution Control Boards of the States shall adhere and implement the earlier orders passed by this Tribunal.

Stand over to 10th January, 2014.
